CWDP Job Seeker Services Endorsement Application Version 1.0

Valid for applications received by April 30, 2005

(After April 30, 2005, contact NAWDP for most recent application.)

NOTE: Applications typed in this Microsoft Word document must be printed, signed with original signatures and mailed to the NAWDP office. Emailed and faxed applications will NOT be accepted, as they do not have the original signatures necessary for review. Both Reference Forms must also be mailed with original signatures.

This application is a protected document, which means that the spell check and other formatting features (bold, underlining, italic, etc.) will NOT work in this document.

CWDP Job Seeker Services Endorsement

The Certified Workforce Development Professional (CWDP) credential and the CWDP Job Seeker Services Endorsement are awarded by The National Association of Workforce Development Professionals (NAWDP).

The CWDP credential provides objective proof that the holder meets certain minimum national standards for education, experience, competency, and ethical behavior as defined by the National Association of Workforce Development Professionals. The CWDP Job Seeker Services Endorsement indicates that the CWDP also meets national standards of competency in six specialized knowledge areas related to managing workforce development programs.

NAWDP is a national professional association serving the workforce development community. NAWDP members work in job training and placement centers, One-Stop Centers, federal, state and local organizations, employment services centers, public and private educational institutions, for-profit and not-for-profit businesses, community-based organizations, welfare agencies, workforce development boards and research organizations. NAWDP sponsors regional and national professional development conferences, a monthly publication, products and services, and other member benefits.

What is a Workforce Development Professional?

Definition:

Workforce Development Professionals have as their primary responsibility the facilitation of processes by which individuals identify, prepare for, obtain and maintain employment, careers and self-sufficiency; and by which businesses, other employing organizations and communities develop, access and retain a workforce that enables them to maintain and improve their economic competitiveness.

Workforce Development Professionals work at a professional level either in directly providing services to their customers or in planning, evaluating and managing organizations that do so.

Workforce Development Professionals display the common characteristics of a professional, submit to a Code of Professional Ethics and Practices, and define and subscribe to accepted standards of excellence and professional growth.

Workforce Development Professional

Areas of Competency

Job Seeker Services Endorsement

- J1. General “Helping” Skills: Demonstrates the essential elements of a helping relationship, including rapport, trust and mutual respect. Is able to effectively communicate with customers by listening, asking relevant questions, and giving appropriate guidance and feedback.
- J2. Job Preparation Skills: Understands the training needs of both the employer and the job seeker. Is able to develop training plans that address the employer’s needs and the job seeker’s capabilities.
- J3. Job Search Skills: Understands the process, techniques, and tools of an effective job-search campaign. Is able to assess the local labor market, determine appropriate transferable skills, and critique various types of cover letters and resumes. Understands the proper techniques for job applications, interviewing, and networking.
- J4. Job Retention Skills: Understands the factors that affect job retention. Is able to identify actions that address potential barriers to long-term employment.
- J5. Job Advancement Skills: Is informed about available career ladder opportunities and available resources for ongoing training and development. Is able to counsel job seekers on how to advance in a career or change professions.
- J6. Case Management: Understands the process to connect the customer with needed services. Is able to use these services to help the job seeker develop and implement a service plan related to his career and employment goals. Is knowledgeable about and able to facilitate access to community resources.

These competency areas are specifically for the CWDP Job Seeker Services Endorsement. To see the other competency areas for the core CWDP, Management Services Endorsement, and Business and Employer Services Endorsement please visit the NAWDP website (www.nawdp.org).

Requirements for CWDP Job Seeker Services Endorsement

1. Certified Workforce Development Professional status

Applicants are required to already be accepted as Certified Workforce Development Professionals (CWDP) in good standing prior to applying for an endorsement to their CWDP credential.

2. Code of Ethics

Applicants are required to sign and date the statement attesting that they have read and agree to adhere to the Code of Professional Ethics and Practices adopted by The National Association of Workforce Development Professionals (NAWDP). NAWDP retains the right to review the conduct of any certificate holder when a breach of ethics is alleged, and to apply punishment, if warranted, up to and including the revocation of certification and endorsement.

3. Competencies

Job Seeker Services endorsed Workforce Development Professionals possess knowledge and skills in six distinct areas (page 2). Applicants must provide detailed explanations of how they achieved competency in each of the six areas.

Applicants who rate themselves as lacking, or only having basic knowledge or skills in one or more areas will be expected to seek and obtain training in those areas before renewal of their certification.

The Applicant must complete the Competency Rating Form and include it in the application package.

4. Professional Application Standards

Becoming a Certified Workforce Development Professional reflects on both the Applicant and the Workforce Development Profession. Therefore, the Applicant's entire application packet will be reviewed and measured against the following standards:

1. Typed or printed neatly in ink.
2. Spelled accurately.
3. Written with correct grammar.
4. Delivered with pages clean and neat (e.g. no stains, no ripped out pages)

Failure to meet these standards can result in rejection of the application. Applicants who are unsure of whether their application packets meet these standards are encouraged to have their packets reviewed by their supervisors or another professional they respect before they submit their applications.

5. References

The Applicant is required to obtain two references. At least one of the references must be an immediate supervisor, someone who is very familiar with the job duties, knowledge and skills of the Applicant. This person may be the same one who completes the Experience Form. The second reference may be another supervisor or a colleague. If the Applicant has no immediate supervisor, a Board Member or a customer of the Applicant should complete one Reference Form.

References will also need to affirm that the Applicant has adhered to the NAWDP Code of Professional Ethics and Practices. Note that both Reference Forms must be mailed directly to NAWDP. The application will not be considered complete until both Reference Forms have been received.

6. Application Fee

CWDP Management Services Endorsement is $50.00 (payable in U.S. currency). Include a check, money order or credit card information with the completed Application Package. Make checks payable to NAWDP. Although purchase orders are accepted from approved schools and organizations, payment must be received before the award can be mailed and published.

Individuals whose applications are denied will not receive a refund. However, they will have up to two application cycles to reapply without paying an additional application fee.

7. Random Checks

Applications are subject to random checks by the NAWDP Office to verify the information contained. If a person contacted for the random check does not verify the information, the Applicant's acceptance or denial will be held pending until the time the information is verified. If the information is shown to be false, the application will be rejected on the basis that the Code of Professional Ethics and Practices was violated.

If the application is rejected, the Applicant may appeal the decision but must provide evidence to refute the decision.

8. Renewal

The CWDP Job Seeker Services Endorsement is aligned with the applicant's CWDP certification and must be renewed at the same time as the CWDP renewal in order to maintain both the certification and the endorsement.

Recertification of the CWDP requires documenting at least 60 hours of professional development addressing one or more of the workforce development competency areas. The endorsement renewal will require that 20 of those 60 required hours for core renewal must be professional development related to one or more of the six job seeker services endorsement competency areas. Endorsement renewal payment will be a non-refundable renewal fee of $50 for the CWDP plus $25 for each endorsement. Renewals will be for a three-year period. Certified professionals will receive information concerning their renewal six months before the expiration of their certification.

Application Package Directions

1. Read the application package carefully. Fill out all forms completely and use the checklist (page 6) before submitting your application.
2. Go to the NAWDP website, www.nawdp.org and confirm your CWDP status is current and your CWDP certification number is correct.
3. Determine if you qualify. Pay particular attention to the Requirements for Certification. Do not submit an application unless you meet these criteria, as your application will be rejected and the fee for applying is non-refundable.
4. Complete the Application for CWDP Job Seeker Services Endorsement. Please print clearly or type. Do not abbreviate. You must complete all portions of the application and give complete responses (including addresses). All information is subject to verification. All signatures must be original and cannot be copies or faxes.
5. Read and attest that you will adhere to the NAWDP Code of Professional Ethics and Practices.
6. Complete the Competency Rating Form. Pay particular attention to the requirement that you detail where and how you attained competency in each area. There must be enough information on the form for the reviewers to know where and how you attained the competency, or your application will be rejected.

You must rate yourself on all six competencies even if you rate yourself as “Possessing little or no knowledge or skill in the area.” Applications that do not contain ratings on all six competencies will be rejected.
7. Please provide two references, one of which must be a supervisor. Before giving the Reference Form to your references, print your name, sign and date the form, and print your reference’s name on the form. Have the references mail the completed Reference Form (both pages) directly to NAWDP whose address is provided on the Reference Form. As a convenience to your references, you may want to provide a stamped, addressed envelope. An application will not be reviewed until NAWDP has received both completed Reference Forms.
8. Review the application package to ensure that it meets the Professional Application Standards identified in the Requirements section.

Questions

If you have questions, check the NAWDP web site, www.nawdp.org; call NAWDP at (202)589-1790; or email nawdp@aol.com.

All correspondence bearing the Applicant’s name should be mailed to the following address:

NAWDP
Attn: Certification Department
810 First Street, NE, Suite 525
Washington, DC 20002-4227

Application Checklist

The following must be submitted with the application:

- Completed Application Form.
 - Completed Competency Rating Form.
 - Signed Code of Professional Ethics and Practices.
 - Application fee of $50.
 - Original signatures and dates on all forms.
- Remind Reference #1 and #2 to send their completed Reference Form to NAWDP.

Submission

Submit the complete package in a large envelope (do not fold the documents) to:

Certification Department
NAWDP
810 First St., NE, Suite 525
Washington, DC 20002-4227

Applications need to be received by the following dates, (not postmarked):

Received in NAWDP Office:

January 31
April 30
July 31
October 31

For Review in:

February
May
August
November

Because original signatures are required on all Forms, faxed information will not be accepted.

Review

After NAWDP receives your complete package and payment, the application will be placed under review. The NAWDP Certification Review Committee meets quarterly (February, May, August, and November) to review completed applications submitted that quarter. Applications will not be considered complete until all Forms have been received (including the Reference Forms). Incomplete applications will be placed in holding for six months, during which time applicants can submit any missing materials. After six months, these applications will be rejected and discarded and the application fee will not be refunded. Since Applicants will include all Forms in the Application Package except the Reference Forms, it is advisable that Applicants follow-up with their References to make sure that they have completed and mailed the Reference Forms.

You will be contacted by mail whether you were accepted or rejected. The NAWDP office will not be able to accept telephone inquires about whether an application has been accepted or not. You will be notified in the mail by the 15th of the month following the review.

Rejection

If an Applicant is rejected, NAWDP will provide a written explanation with instructions on how to correct the error or omission. The Applicant can resubmit an application within two review cycles without having to pay an additional fee. If any application is submitted after the second review cycle, however, the Applicant must submit the application fee again in its entirety.

Certification

Once your application has been approved, you will receive written notice of your certification along with your signed Certification, CWDP lapel pin, hometown press release and Continuing Professional Education Development Log.

Certified Workforce Development Professionals are encouraged to use the designation “CWDP” after their name in all business and professional correspondence.

Commonly Asked Questions

1. When can I apply for endorsements?

You can apply for any of the three endorsements the first certification review after you have earned your CWDP credential and while your CWDP credential is current and in good standing.

2. How many endorsements can I apply for?

You may apply for as many as you like, but you must complete a separate application for each endorsement. This includes providing two references for each of the endorsements and separate payments for each endorsement.

3. Do all certification requirements have to be met at the time of application?

Yes. All certification requirements must be met at the time application is received for review.

4. Where can I find my CWDP certification number?

NAWDP's website has a listing of all the CWDPs (www.nawdp.org) with their certification numbers. Your CWDP number is also printed on the certificate you received when you were accepted. The NAWDP office can also tell you your certification number.

5. If I am the head of the organization where I work, who should fill out my Reference Forms?

As the head of an organization you need to have a Board Member or a customer (for business owners) who is familiar with your work and experience complete at least one of the references. Two Reference Forms are still required for heads of organizations.

6. How long is the endorsement review process?

Certification and endorsement applications are reviewed quarterly: February, May, August, and November. Your application must be received, not postmarked, by January 31, April 30, July 31, and October 31 to be considered for the relevant review cycle. For example, if your application is received April 30, your application will be reviewed in the May cycle. If your application is received May 1, your application will be reviewed during the August cycle. You will be notified by mail of the outcome of the review within 6 weeks after the start of the review cycle.

7. If I am denied the CWDP endorsement, what happens next?

If you are denied endorsement, you will be mailed a letter outlining the reason(s) why you were denied and an explanation of your appeal rights. In addition, you will have two review cycles to reapply without having to repay the application fee.

8. How long is the endorsement valid for?

The endorsement is only valid as long as your CWDP is valid. Therefore, if your CWDP expired February 28, 2007, your endorsement will expire then also. If you apply for your endorsement three-months before your CWDP expires, your endorsement will only be valid for three months and must be renewed at the same time you renew your core CWDP certification.

9. What is required to renew the endorsement?

In order to renew your core CWDP, you are required to submit 60 hours of continuing professional development. For the endorsement renewal at least 20 of the 60 hours for renewing the core must be related to the endorsement competency areas. If you have more than one endorsement, it is 20 hours for each endorsement.

CWDP Job Seeker Services Endorsement Competency Rating Form

Directions: Review the description of the six Areas of Competency (page 2). Rate your level of competency on each of the six areas using the scale described below. If you rate yourself as 2, 3 or 4 on a Competency Area, indicate how and where you attained that competency. Examples may be education or training, on-the-job experience, or self-directed studies. When citing any of these you must provide enough explanatory detail to justify your rating.

For examples, if you acquire the skill:

- Through education or training, provide the name of the course or class and the name of the education or training providers;
- Through on-the-job experience, describe the relevant work activities; or
- Through self-directed studies, list the books, papers, or other information sources you read or consulted.

Rating Scale

- 1 Possess little or no knowledge or skill in area.
- 2 Possess basic knowledge or skill in area.
- 3 Possess intermediate knowledge or skill in area.
- 4 Possess advanced knowledge or skill in area.

Rating Guidelines

Possesses basic knowledge (2): The Applicant would be able to make a 15-minute presentation, without preparation, on the subject.

Possesses intermediate knowledge (3): The Applicant would be able to make a one-hour presentation, without preparation, on the subject.

Possesses advanced knowledge (4): The Applicant would be able to present a one-half day seminar, without major preparation, on the subject.

NAWDP Profile

The National Association of Workforce Development Professionals (NAWDP) is a professional association for individuals working in employment and training and related programs. NAWDP's nearly 3,500 members represent a broad cross section of workforce development, both geographically and by segments of the system. Since NAWDP's membership is individual, it has a special interest in professional development. NAWDP serves as a voice for the profession, across programs and geographic areas.

A few benefits of NAWDP Membership:

National Certification:

NAWDP endorses and administers the Certified Workforce Development Professional (CWDP) credential and the additional endorsements (Business and Employer Services, Job Seeker Services, and Management Services) as a way to recognize the training, experience and expertise of workforce development professionals. CWDP status is based upon review and approval of an application by NAWDP's Certification Review Committee. Members receive a discount on their application fee.

Online Membership Directory:

NAWDP members benefit from access to an online membership directory allowing them to network with other members around the country. They can contact each other to exchange ideas and share valuable information on workforce development.

Conference and Workshops:

Approximately 1,000 Workforce Development Professionals gather annually for the NAWDP conference. The conference includes plenaries, skill-based workshops and networking events to bring all the attendees together and advance the workforce development field. NAWDP also holds workshops around the country on various topics.

Publications:

NAWDP publishes a monthly newsletter for members. There are also several different publications available to members at a discount, such as The Anatomy of a Job Fair, Return on Investment and Job Developer's Marketing Kit.

NAWDP Mission:

NAWDP's mission is to be the national voice for the profession. Its activities include information exchange and advocacy, particularly on capacity building and issues that affect the effectiveness of the professionals who are the heart of workforce development.
